

TEACHER'S GUIDE for The Paragraph Book

Book 2: Writing the Paragraph That Tells a Story

KEYS TO QUIZZES

LESSON 1 QUIZ:

1T, 2T, 3F, 4T, 5T

6-13.

]The New Madrid earthquake [#

First, the ground rose and fell. Next the earth opened up in deep cracks.

Then, the mighty Mississippi River developed huge waves. Finally, the great quake of 1811 in New Madrid, Missouri, was over.

14. NO, 15. NO

LESSON 2 QUIZ

1-6. (Remind students that when they draw a line through the formula word the comma should remain.)

Antlers

In early spring
First, two small bumps, called spikes, popped out on the head of the young male deer. ^{By May} Next, the spikes had grown and branched into small antlers. ^{By late August} Then, the deer was sporting full-sized antlers. ^{In November} Then, he used his antlers to fight for a female mate. ^{In January} Then, the antlers fell off and were buried in the snow. ^{When spring came again} Finally, a new set of antlers began to grow.