

Ready to Read

Phyllis Bertin and Eileen Perlman

Ready to Read, the first book in the PAF series, introduces beginning and struggling readers to beginning consonant sounds and short a. Students practice reading, writing, and spelling CVC words in this multisensory, Orton-Gillingham based program.

The following sample lesson introduces the beginning consonant sound n and is designed to reinforce beginning reading, writing, and phonemic awareness skills. Use the attached lesson plan in the PAF format with an individual student, a small group, or the entire class. Preventing Academic Failure can be incorporated into almost any reading curriculum.

Recommended Companion Material

EPS offers a wide range of products that complement the reading activities in Ready to Read. We recommend the following series to help beginning or struggling readers develop basic reading and writing skills.

Stepping Up in Reading 1: Building Accuracy and Fluency

Ungraded

Use the Stepping Up In Reading books to develop accuracy and fluency so that children understand what they read. Stepping Up In Reading Book 1 is the first in the series of three Stepping Up books. Use this book independently or as part of the larger PAF program.

PAF Workbook for Print

Ungraded

The PAF Handwriting Program guarantees that children will learn to write easily and legibly. Children who write well do better in school. The materials can be used with or without the PAF reading program. This affordable penmanship program can be used in any classroom.
