Where do the words come from?

Every word in Wordly Wise i3000 was selected to expand critical grade-level vocabulary and improve reading comprehension.

The chosen vocabulary words are commonly encountered in grade-level literature, textbooks, and state and national assessments. Word selection was based on word importance, usefulness, and/or difficulty. Knowledge of the selected words can greatly improve students’ reading comprehension, as well as standardized test results.

Quizlet is embedded in every Wordly Wise i3000 student subscription with point-of-use access to the program approved study sets.

Quizlet is happy to provide more learning opportunities to Wordly Wise 3000 students and assist instructors in providing engaging activities,” said Matthew Glotzbach, Quizlet’s CEO. “Combining School Specialty’s trusted content with Quizlet’s innovative study modes is a win-win for students and teachers.”
Lesson Overview

Word Knowledge Awareness Rating
Students begin each lesson with a self-assessment of word knowledge.

Practice Activities For Levels 2–8
Students complete a variety of practice activities that provide multiple exposures to each word. Activities vary by lesson and level.

All activities are self-paced, provide feedback, and are automatically scored—providing value to both students and teachers.

Teacher View
Teachers are able to see word knowledge ratings in real-time via progress monitoring. This information can be used to guide in-class instruction during the introduction of the word list.

Word List
Students are introduced to lesson words through traditional definitions and contextual sentences to help students fully grasp multiple word meanings. Words and definitions can be accessed through the word lists or interactive flashcards.

Flashcard
In Using Context Clues, students read a sentence that is missing a word, and then select the correct word from four choices to complete the sentence. Context clues are used to determine which of the four words fits best into the sentence.

In Completing Sentences, students must choose the phrase that correctly completes each sentence, using context clues to determine whether a word is used properly. Word knowledge is deepened through exposure to the correct use of a word in different contextual sentences and exposure to multiple word meanings.

Using Context Clues Student View
Students can click Word List at any time to review word meanings.

Students receive immediate feedback on their answers, telling them if they are correct, partially correct, or incorrect.

Completing Sentences Teacher View
Teachers are able to see which students have responded.

Practice Activities
For Levels 4–8

In Making Connections, students associate new vocabulary words to words they may already know. Making these semantic connections deeply embeds words into memory, helping students retain the newly learned words.

Students can click Word List at any time to review word meanings.

Students receive immediate feedback on their answers, telling them if they are correct, partially correct, or incorrect. If they are partially correct or incorrect, they have the opportunity to retry.

Making Connections Student View

In Completing Sentences, students read the beginning of a sentence that includes the vocabulary word and complete it in their own words in order to demonstrate their understanding of the word’s meaning.

In Determining Meanings, students complete sentences based on their understanding of a word in its various forms. Words may be presented as they are in the word list, or altered by the addition of a prefix or suffix.

Completed sentences are graded immediately. Teachers receive feedback on their students’ progress and are able to see how many students have responded to each question.

In Using Words in Context, students determine whether words are used correctly in sentences, strengthening their ability to determine meaning from context clues.

Students can click Word List at any time to review word meanings.

Practice Activities
For Levels 9–12

In Understanding Word Relationships, students relate new words with words they already know. Linking new words with familiar words helps students own new terms and retain them better.

Students receive immediate feedback on their answers, telling them if they are correct, partially correct, or incorrect. If they are partially correct or incorrect, they have the opportunity to retry.

Understanding Contextual Meanings Teacher View

In Understanding Contextual Meanings, students identify correct and incorrect uses of vocabulary words in sentences. Then they apply word knowledge by writing their own original sentences that use the words correctly.

Vocabulary in Context

Students read an original passage that incorporates all of the vocabulary words from the lesson.

The Vocabulary in Context passage for each lesson is offered at two reading levels: a primary passage, appropriate for on-level students, and a secondary passage available as a differentiation resource for students who require support in reading.

On-level passage

Folktales are legends of past events that are passed on from adults to children without ever being written down. Every country has its folktales, and this one from Japan comes to mind. It tells of the adventures of a young pearl diver named Tokoyo who lived in Japan.

Teachers seamlessly assign the appropriate reading passage to students within the platform.

Secondary passage

Folktales are stories passed from adults to children. They are not written down. Every country has its folktales. This one comes from Japan. It tells the story of a young pearl diver named Tokoyo.

Comprehension Questions

Students who use the secondary passage are able to answer the same open-response questions as their peers.
Wordly Wise i3000 incorporates social sharing and interaction in three application activities—Illustrated Vocabulary, Vocabulary Extension, and Creative Writing. In these activities, students apply their vocabulary knowledge in a social learning environment. Students must share their own responses before they can see what their classmates have written.

Illustrated Vocabulary

Peer-to-peer Posting

Students create an image and write a sentence to represent a word’s meaning.

- Think about what the word communicate means.
- Uploaded an image that shows what communicate means, or draw a picture below.
- Write a sentence to explain how your image shows what communicate means.

Vocabulary Extension Activity

Students explore one key academic word from the lesson and write responses to vocabulary extension prompts.

Students apply their word knowledge in a variety of ways

Each image that a student submits contributes to a virtual word wall, which is viewable by the entire class, deepening and enriching all students’ understanding of the word’s meaning.

Application Activities

* Peer-to-peer Posting
* Vocabulary Extension Activity

The social sharing and interaction provides motivation, engagement, and additional support.
Application Activities

Creative Writing Activity
Students respond to creative writing prompts, and create their own unique sentences using selected vocabulary words.

This activity provides motivation for students to express themselves in writing, while requiring that they use as many vocabulary words as possible.

Students have the opportunity to respond to their classmates’ written work once they submit their own work.

Students who require support in writing tasks can be paired with partners to discuss what they plan to write before they begin.

Teachers can respond to individual students or the entire class.

Assessment and Reporting

Assessment

Wordly Wise i3000 includes data and reporting to provide visibility into student performance at the class, school, and district levels, depending on the role of the user.

The practice activities and lesson, cumulative, and final tests are automatically scored and reported in real-time. As students work through the lessons and levels of Wordly Wise i3000, teachers and administrators can track student progress, and focus on meeting the needs of their students.

Lesson Tests

Standardized Test Preview/Practice items place vocabulary words in context and ask students to determine meaning based on that context.

Experience Summary Report
