“Yes it is!” said Will. “I will not yell if I get hit!”

“Yes,” said Mom. “I want to get you a pet.”

“Is a dog a fun pet?” said Gwen to the man at the shop.

“Yes, a dog is a fun pet,” said the man. “A cat is a fun pet. A frog is a fun pet. A fish is a fun pet.”

“You can get a small pet,” said Mom.

“What small pet can I get?” said Gwen.

“This is a hint,” said Mom. “It can swim in water.”

“Dogs, frogs, and fish can all swim in water,” said Gwen.

“It has fins,” said Mom.

“It is a fish!” said Gwen.

“Yes, I will get you a fish,” said Mom.

A Bad Shock

Bill was on a trip with his class. The class went to a ranch.

“Let’s stop on the track to watch the ducks, the pigs, and the chickens,” Miss Waterman said. “That hen has a lot of small chicks.”

“A chick is stuck on top of a rock!” said Bill. “I will pick it up and put it on the grass.”

When Bill did pick up the chick, the hen ran fast at Bill. The hen was quick! The hen said “Cluck!” Then the hen did peck Bill on the hand. What a shock Bill got!

Bill put the chick on the grass. Bill put his hand in his pocket.

“That chick is just a small ball of fluff,” said Bill. “But the hen will peck you if you pick it up!”

Bad Luck?

The duck sat in the pond. It did not quack. It felt sad.

“I had bad luck,” said the duck. “I did not swim back to the dock. The ducks at the dock got a snack from a man. I did not get a snack.”

“I will swim to the end of the pond,” said the duck. “I can sit on the sand and think.”

The duck swam and swam.

The duck got to the sand and sat on a rock. A man sat on a rock next to it. The man had a sack with his lunch in it.

The duck said, “Quack.” The man’s sack fell in the sand. Sand got into the sack and in the sandwich.

“Yuck,” said the man. “Sand is on the sandwich. What bad luck.” The man did not want his lunch with sand on it. The man left it in the sand.

“Yes,” said the duck. “What luck! Sand on a sandwich is not bad luck to a duck.” The duck stuck his bill into the sack to get the sandwich. “What a snack,” said the duck. Such luck!
Chuck trips on the rock.
The man will check the lock.
Beth put a tack in the wall.

“I must get back,” said Jack. “The sun has set. The boss will want to put the fish into the fish shack.” The skiff went fast. Jack put the skiff in at the dock. Jack’s boss met him at the dock to help.

Jack and his boss put all the fish into a big sack. Jack did drag the sack to the fish shack. Jack and his boss put the fish into the shack and left.

All the cats on the dock did smell the fish in the sack.
“What is that smell? Did you get a whiff of that?” said
Mick, a cat. “I can smell fish. I think I can track that fish smell to the shack!”

The cats went to the shack. “What luck!” said Mick.
“The lock on the shack was left off.”

The cats went in. The cats did grab the fish from the sack. The cats did drag lots of the fish back to the dock.
“What a big snack,” said Mick. Mick did smack his lips.

What do you think will happen when Jack and his boss get back to the shack?
This shop sells pets.

A flock of ducks sat on the sand.

A black spot is on the rug.

Meg has a pink dress.

Do not smack your lips.
Jack and Jill’s Buckets

Jack and Jill went up the hill to bring milk and water to the animals. Jill’s bucket was full of milk. Jack had a bucket full of water.

“This is not fun,” said Jack. “The bucket spills when I jog.”

“Do not jog,” said Jill. “Walk. It is bad to rush a job.”

“The hill is long. The sun will sink,” said Jack. “I want to get the water to the animals fast!”

Jack did jog past Jill. Much of the water did spill from his bucket. When Jack got to the top, a man did check his bucket.

“What is this?” said the man. “I want a full bucket of water! The animals want water.”

Jack went back to fill the bucket. On this trip, Jack will not rush and spill the water.

When Jill got to the top, Jill’s bucket was full. Jill got ten bucks from the man. Then Jill left to get a snack.

Jill met Jack on the path.

“Still on the job?” Jill said to Jack.

“It is bad to rush a job,” said Jack, with a shrug.

“What will I do with Tricks?” said Rick. “Tricks will not fetch. Tricks will not get up to catch a bug. Tricks just sits.”

“Well,” said Rick’s pal Mitch, “I do not think you can call him Tricks. I think you can call him Lump. A lump just sits.”

“That is what I will do,” said Rick. “I will call him Lump.”

Just then, Tricks sat up.

“Quick, pitch a stick!” said Mitch.

Rick did pitch a stick. Tricks got up! Tricks ran to fetch the stick!

“I think Tricks did not want you to call him Lump,” said Mitch.

“I am glad that I can still call him Tricks!” said Rick.

Will Bill catch the ball and block Tim? Bill did snatch at the ball, but Bill did not catch it. Bill cannot block Tim.

Then Gwen is up to bat. The pitch is fast. Gwen swings, but it is not a hit. Gwen is mad. “Fred can pitch fast,” thinks Gwen. “Well, I can bat fast!”

The Nuthatch Nest

It was spring. Chen’s mom had put a box on a branch. A nuthatch had put a nest in the box.

“I want to check the nest,” Chen said to Mom.

Chen and Mom went to check the nest. Just then, a nuthatch did flap its wings and dash off.

“Watch that nuthatch!” said Chen. “What is it up to?”

“It has a bit of fluff,” said Mom. “It must want to fetch soft fluff to finish the nest.”

“That is not fluff,” said Chen. “That is cloth. It is a bit of pink ribbon!”

“Then the nest will get a patch of pink ribbon,” said Mom.

“The pink ribbon will not match the sticks and grass,” said Chen. “What a fun mismatch!”
“What do you think the nuthatch will do next?” said Mom.

“The dad nuthatch will pitch in to help finish the nest,” said Chen. “Then the mom nuthatch will put a clutch of eggs into the nest. The mom nuthatch will sit on them. Last of all, the eggs will hatch into chicks.”

“And you and I will watch it all happen!” said Mom.

The Whale

Whales do not often get close to the shore. But this whale was very close to the shore. A big jet of water came from the hole on the whale’s back.

Some men did watch the whale from a tug in the water. Just then, the whale swam to shore on the crest of a big wave. The whale did land on the sand! It was stuck on the sand.

The men on the tug came fast. The men did want to help the whale. A man did attach a rope to the whale. More men did fix the rope to the hull of the tug. The tug did pull the whale from the sand and into the water. The whale is safe!

The men smile. It was a thrill to save the whale!

Pete Wades In

Pete went to fish in the pond. Pete had to wade in the water to fish. Dad did fish from the shore.

Pete got a big fish on his line. The fish did splash and jump. “Help, Dad!” Pete said.

Dad came to help with the line. Pete and Dad did tug and tug on the line. Dad did slip on moss in the pond. Plunk! Dad was all wet. Dad had a dunk.

Pete got the fish off the line. The fish was a big bass! Dad will make a fire. Pete and Dad will sit next to the fire. The fish will sit in a pan on the fire!

Kate’s mom is not fond of a frog that lives inside. Kate’s mom tells Kate that a frog wants to catch bugs. A frog wants to have a wet home to live in. A home is not full of bugs. It is not wet like a pond.

But Kate insists, “I like frogs. I want to have a frog.”

Kate’s mom and dad want Kate to have a frog, but not a live frog from the pond.

“I have a plan,” said Mom. “Let’s make you a cute cloth frog. A cloth frog can live inside on the bed. A cloth frog will not want bugs. It will not want a wet place to live. I will make the cloth frog just like a live frog.”

“I do want a live frog. But if I cannot have a live frog, a cloth frog will have to do,” Kate tells Mom.

“Fine,” said Clare. “I want a snack. Let’s have something from the backpack.”

“What is this hole?” said Mike. Just then a rabbit came from the hole.

“Come here, rabbit,” said Mike.

“The rabbit is cute,” said Clare. “Let’s give him a snack.” The rabbit ate some of the snack. Then the rabbit did hop back into his hole.

“It’s a plum cake,” said Lane.

“Can I have some?” said Dad.

“Yes. Have a lot,” said Lane. “It is a big cake.”

The Game

Shane and Kate were on the rug with a game. Kate had just won. Shane did hope to win the next game.

Mike came in. “Where did you get that game?” said Mike.

“The game was on the rug when I came in,” said Shane. “Well, I left it there. I want it back,” said Mike.

“But Kate and I are not done with it,” said Shane. “I will put the game back when Kate and I finish.”

Mike put his hands on his hips. “It is mine. You did not ask to have it.”

“You were not here to ask,” said Shane. “Can Kate and I finish this game? Do you want to finish the game with us?”

“Well,” said Mike, “I suppose I will. A game is fun when you can share it!”

Mom, Dad, and Jake came home from a trip on a big jet plane.

“This was a fun ride,” said Jake.

“When will the plane land?” said Mom.

“The plane was to land at one,” said Dad. “But it is late. The plane did take off late.”

“I hope it lands somewhere fast. I’m sick,” said Mom.

“Here is the sickness bag,” said Dad.

“I have a pill in this pocket,” said Mom. “I will take it.”

Mom felt in the pocket. The pill was not there!

“Where is that pill?” said Mom. “It was somewhere in here.”

“Here it is,” said Mom. The pill made Mom’s sickness stop. Mom was fine in a bit.

In a while, it was time to land. The plane gave a small shake in the wind. It made a bump when it did land. The plane came to a stop.

“That plane ride was a lot of fun!” said Jake.

“I’m glad you had fun,” Mom said. “But I’m glad the plane is home. Not all of us like the same things!”

A Scare

Nate was in the watermelon patch with Dad. Then Nate went to the shed to get a rake. In the shed, Nate got a scare.

Nate gave a big yell. “Yikes, a snake!” said Nate. Dad ran into the shed. Nate was pale.

“What is it?” said Dad.

“That hole in the back of the shed has a big black snake in it,” said Nate. “It went into the hole when I came into the shed. The rake is in front of the snake’s hole. Can you pick up the snake?”

“A snake is not tame,” said Dad. “It is not safe to pick up a snake with your bare hands. Where did it come from?”

“It came from the grass,” said Nate.

“There is just one thing to do,” said Dad. “The snake must slide itself back into the grass. There is a pole on the side wall of the shed. Can you get it?”
“No, you get it, Dad!” Nate said.

Dad got the pole. With the pole, Dad did poke the snake. The snake came up from the hole. Then Dad did chase the snake into the grass with the pole.

“I will plug the hole in the shed. The snake can not get back in,” said Dad.

“What a scare!” said Nate.

“I can,” said Gabe. “I love to dig up rocks. I can get that rock up fast!”

Gabe dug and dug. The rock did not shift one bit.

“This is a problem,” said Gabe. “I will not quit. Things get done when you do not quit!” Gabe dug and dug some more. Gabe’s hands got sore.

“Do you have something to drink?” said Gabe to June.

“I will run home and get you something,” said June. Gabe sat on the grass to rest until June came back. Gabe did rest a long time.
When June got back, Gabe said, “Where were you?”
“I got drinks, more spades, and someone to help us. Gabe, this is Hope. Hope can help us dig the rock from the hole.”

A Valentine

You can make a valentine. A valentine is a small note that you give to someone you like. All kids like to get valentines.

The best valentine is one you make yourself. You can fill it with hugs. You can put a kiss in it if you want. You can just print “I like you!” inside. You can print at the top, “To a best pal from your best pal.” Put your name at the bottom of the valentine.

You will make someone smile when you give a valentine. That is a fine thing to do. Make a valentine. Print something inside. Send it to someone the next time you can.

Spin and spin,
